

Agreement for Use of the Marks GMCS Marks Certificate of Conformity

The above marks are a certification mark owned by Government and Military Certification Systems, Inc. ("GMCS") and the International Accreditation Service (IAS), respectively. GMCS and IAS shall retain exclusive rights and control over the use of their respective marks. Permission to use a certification mark and Certificate of Conformity is granted or withdrawn at the sole discretion of GMCS. GMCS allows a certified organization to use the Mark in any professional, technical, trade, or other business publications. Although the marks can be used on product packaging, any such reference shall not imply product conformity or product endorsement based on the GMCS certification process nor shall the Marks be placed or used on any products, calibration/metrology, or laboratory testing reports. The Certificate of Conformity to any standard is the property of GMCS. The Certificate of Conformity may be photocopied, scanned, or duplicated if the print and marks are legible. GMCS maintains the right to require the organization to cease using a Mark or Certificate of Conformity at any time if it fails to utilize the Mark as required or has its certification with GMCS suspended or revoked. The client may not use the IAS mark by itself.

The client may use the GMCS mark by itself or with the IAS mark. The GMCS marks are each to be printed in pure black and white or as provided to the client by GMCS. The client is not permitted to change the mark or its colors (except for pure black and white) in any manner.

The Client's statement on product packaging or in accompanying information that the certified client has a certified management system. Product packaging is considered as that which can be removed without the product disintegrating or being damaged. Accompanying information is considered as separately available or easily detachable. Type labels or identification plates are considered as part of the product. The statement shall in no way imply that the product, process or service is certified by this means. The statement shall include reference to:

- identification (e.g. brand or name) of the certified client;
- the type of management system (e.g. quality, environment) and the applicable standard;
